PERSHING HEADS FAMOUS "FIRST" DOWN 5TH. AVE.

Commander Shares Honors With Battle Scarred Veterans

NEW YORK, Sept. 10$.—Over a five mile flower-strewn pathway General Pershing led his famous First division down Fifth avenue today to the wild plaudits of 2,000,000 proud countrymen. It was the last great review of the world war for New York.

The commander of America's armies shared honors with battle scarred veterans. As he rode down the avenue the stern lines of the leader's face relaxed in the now famous "Pershing smile" and when he dismounted in Washington Square at the end of the march surrounded by his staff, he exclaimed:

"It was the most enthusiastic and patriotic outburst I ever have seen."

Behind Pershing rode a score of major generals and brigadiers and back of them strode the commander's guard of honor, the flower of si xdivisions. Stalwart young giants, they scored in the nation's metropolis a triumph far dearer to their hearts than the laurels they won in the victory reviews of Paris and London.

Nearly all wore wound chevrons.

Back of "Pershing's Own" swept the 25,000 regulars of the First Division fully accoutred for war. Horse, foot and artillery, they swept down the avenue. It was a dress parade but so far as equipment went they might have been on their way to the front.

As Pershing came abreast the grandstand at the Metropolitan museum the great crowd went wild with enthusiasm. He sat on his horse smiling, and saluting with his gloved hand, while immediately behind streamed the American colors and the four starredd flag of a full general.

The commander made a stop at St. Patrick's Cathedral to change horses. He dismounted amidst a crowd of girls representing the Knights of Columbus, eager to be the first to hand him flowers. Upon the cheek of the victor he implanted a kiss.

Seated on a private stand in front of the cathedral were Cardinal Mercier and a throng of church dignataries. Pershing paused to welcome to America the Belgian prelate. The cathedral chimes rang out in hymns of victory and "The Star Spangled Banner" as the two clasped hands.

"I love America with all my heart and greet you as one of the world's greatest soldiers," said Cardinal Mercier.

General Pershing and his officers wore none of the decorations awarded them abroad. The general wore on his breast a silken bar betokening the distinguished service cross. One of the striking figures among his staff was Colonel Adelbert De Chambrun of the French army, a grand son of LaFayette, in pale blue regimentals.

"This shows the army in the full panoply of war," said Secretary of War Baker. "It gives the people an opportunity to see a full division as it went thru to the front over the highways of France."

In the reviewing stand with Mr. Baker were Jules Jusserand, the French ambassador, and Mrs. Jusserand; General Peyton C. March, chief of staff; Admiral H. B. Wilson and Rear Admiral C. B. Brittain; Major General Thomas F. Barry, Governor Smith, Mayor Hylan, Major General Guglielmotti of the Italian embassy, Miss May Pershing and Mrs. D. N. Butler, General Pershing's sisters; Warren Pershing, his son; James F. Pershing, his brother; United States Senator Warren of Wyoming, his father-in-law, and Major General John F. O'Ryan.

At the head of the first division rode its commander, Major General McGlachlin.

A chorus of Yankee cheers and rebel yells heralded the coming of the sixteenth infantry, their faces bronzed by German sun. Or their regimental ag was the Croix de Guerre.

Represented 47 States.

The troops in line represented 47 states of the union and several of the insular possessions and among the marchers were more than 4,000 "old time" doughboys whose only recorded home is the United States army. Trudging along under the weight of full combat equipment, every pack in place, rifles clean and bayonets gleaming in the sun, the fighters presented a picture of aggressiveness and force. From 110th street where the parade started, to the Washington arch, where it disbanded, the throngs along the curbs kept up almost tumultous cheering.

"There comes the Sixth field artillery!" someone shouted. A few moments later this famous organization, Battery C of which on Oct. 23, 1917, fired the first shot at the Germans, came into sight and was wildly acclaimed.

LIGHT VOTE MARKS THE STATEWIDE PRIMARIES

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—A light vote marked the statewide primaries today for nomination of delegates to the constitutional convention and altho dominant political organizations carried the majority of the districts were several upsets due to factional fights and issues. In Chicago about 80,000 of the 404,000 registered male voters went to the polls. Women were not eligible to vote. In many districts the party organizations chose leading citizens as their candidates for seats in the convention to be held next January in Springfield. One of the hardest battles of the primaries was that within the Republican ranks in the Kankakee or twentieth district where the forces of Former State Treasurer Len Small were successful in nominating State Senator Edward C. Curtis of Grant Park, Ill., and A. F. Goodyear of Watseka over State's Attorney J. Bert Miller, Kankakee, and A. M. Jones of Milford.

In Chicago and Cook county there were contests in each of the nineteen districts and there were contests in seventeen of the thirty two districts outside Cook county. In the latter Frederic R. DeYoung of Harvey, and Amos C. Miller of Kenilworth, Republicans won over William H. Malone of Park Ridge, former member of the state board of equalization, in the seventh district. In the ninth district Representative David E. Shanahan was one of the Republicans nominated.

In several Chicago districts the nominees were said to favor the initiative and referendum and "gate way" amendment.

In Chicago the voters defeated a bond issue proposition for 1,000 additional policemen.

Primary results follow:

Attorney Charles E. Woodward of Ottawa, confidential legal advisor to Governor Lowden, was high man in the thirty ninth senatorial district.

James J. Conway and Bernard J. Shanley, Ottawa, Democrats and George N. Taylor, Streator, and Joseph McCabe, Peru, Socialists were without opposition.

Attorney Woodward and Representative William Scanlan of Peru defeated Lieutenant Gleen W. Weese, Ottawa attorney for the Republican nomination.

Edward C. Curtis, Grant Park and A. F. Goodyear, Watseka, were nominated by Republicans of the twentieth senatorial district. Dr. Horace Gibson, Sheldon and J. W. Rausch, Democrats, were unopposed.

Incomplete returns from the twenty second district show E. B. Coolley and William M. Acton nominated by Republicans. James Dwyer, Danville and J. W. Sheppard, Paris, Democrats, were unopposed.

Captain O. E. Carlstrom of Aledo was nominated as one of the Republican candidates from the thirty third district and tonight C. E. Dietz of Moline, was leading C. J. Searle of Rock Island for the other nomination.

M. R. Moore was a Democratic candidate unopposed.

The Vote at Quincy.

Quincy, Ill., Sept. 10.—The vote in the thirty sixxtxh district was the lightest ever known. Adams county which has over one half of the votes of the district, cast less than ten per cent of its normal vote. So far as is known the same is true of Scott and Pike counties. Calhoun county cannot be reached on account of the storm. The indications are that John E. Wall, Quincy, and Rolla Six, Barry, Democrats are nominated. Peter C. Ellis and W. H. Gray, Republicans both of Adams had no opposition.

Tenth Senatorial District.

Rockford, Ill., Sept 10.—Bruce H. Garrett of Rackford, and James Nichols of Polo, were nominated on the Republican ticket and C. Herry Bloom and Oscar H. Ogren, both of Rockford were nominated on the Socialist ticket as delegates to the constitutional convention from the tenth senatorial district at the primaries here today.

Logan Hay Defeated.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 10.—Primary returns from all but six precincts in the 45th senatorial district show the following constitutional convention nominations:

Republicans—James H. Paddock, clerk of the senate and Clinton L. Conkling.

Democrats—A. D. Stevens and William H. Nelms.

Paddock defeated former State Senator Logan Hay, Republican, by approximately 400 votes.

There was no contest among the Democrats.

Fourteenth Senatorial District

Aurora, Ill., Sept. 10.—Lee Mighell of Aurora and Rodney H. Brandon were nominated today by Republicans of the fourteenth senatorial district for constitutional convention delegates without opposition. There were no other party candidates.

Twelfth Senatorial District.

Freeport, Ill., Sept. 10.—Harry H. Stahl of Freeport and Arthur M. Smith, Stockton, Republicans, and John L. Dickson, Freeport and Robert Bruce Mitchell, Freeport, Democrats, carried Stephenson county in today's primaries for constitutional convention delegates in the twelfth senatorial district.

Veterans of Four Wars Join In Victory Parade

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 10.—Veterans of four American wars today joined in the victory parade of the Grand Army of the Republic, which is holding its national encampment here.

In the line of marchers were several aged Mexican war veterans, riding in automobiles. Hundreds of Civil war veterans also rode in machine, but thousands of them marched proudly behind their flags and fife and drum corps. Heroes of the Spanish-American and European wars, glad of the opportunity of doing homage to the fast dwindling ranks of Civil war fighters, paraded behind the battle flags they carried on foreign fields.

The marchers ranged from mere youths who served in France to the grizzled veterans, many of whom have passed the allotted four score and ten.

In the line which stretched for miles, were the deep blue uniforms of the Mexican and Civil wars, the lighter blue of the Spanish war veterans, the natty blue and white of the navy and the familiar khaki of the recent war.

The marchers passed thru seething masses of humanity which taxed the capacity of the streets. Thousands witnessed the procession from buildings and automobiles. Flags were in great profusion.

Cheers and shouts greeted the boys in blue as they trudged past with stooped shoulders and faltering steps. Enthusiasm ran high as the younger veterans, heads erect and eyes snapping, passed with firm tread.

The marching veterans were reviewed by Clarendon E. Adams of Omaha, commander in chief of the Grand Army, by the past national commanders and by Governor Cox. The reviewing stand was in front of the state house.

CLOTHIERS SET STYLES

Belts and Double Breasts Latest Fashion for Men

Chicago, Sept. 10.—Belts and double breasts will be the impending styles in men's clothing, according to many of the five hundred members of the National Association of Retail Clothiers, who are holding their sixth annual convention here.

But little hope is held out for a decrease in the price altho the clothiers are considering ways and means for reducing the high costs of everything.

Wood Fails To Agree With the War Department

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—A regular army of 225,000 to 350,000, coupled with a system of universal military training that would provide an organized reserve is ample for the present needs of the country, Major General Leonard Wood, commander of the central department, declared today before the senate military committee. In making his recommendations General Wood disagreed with the more or less tentative war department bill based on a regular force of 500,000.

General Wood also differed from the department in the amount of training to be given reservists. He held that three months training was too short and recommended six. The one point on which he was in accord with the department appeared to be the need of a strong general staff.

He favored an independent air service but did not approve creation of an air minister or cabinet officer to head the department. The air forces he said worked at times with the army or the navy and at times alone and under a separate organization could be thrown to the aid of either of these services.

The main point in preparation of the army was to see that adequate equipment for 4,000,000 reserves was on hand, he said, adding "that was where we fell down in the war."

Questioned as to the need of six lieutenant generals and 35 major generals of the regular establishment as proposed in the war department bill, General Wod said the country would pay them, that's all.

One of his main objections to the war department plan, he added, was that it filled up all vacancies, leaving nothing for new men in war time and depriving such men of a stimulus to good work.

Urging his six months training period, General Wood said:

"To send soldiers to war without training is to double your dead."

Later he said that experience might show that the period could be shortened and Chairman Wadsworth pointed out that the department proposed exclusive military training while General Wood had urged vocational training as well.

LAWLESSNESS IN BOSTON BRINGS MILITARY RULE

Other Unions May Declare Sympathetic Strikes

BULLETIN

BOSTON, Sept. 10. — State guardsmen opened fire with a machine gun on a mob in South Boston late tonight, killing one and wounding several others. The rioting was proceeding at last reports.

BULLETIN

GREENFIELD, Mass., Sept. 10. The state branch of the American Federation of Labor at its annual convention today voted to order all labor unions in Boston affiliated with the federation to vote tomorrow on the question of striking in sympathy with police.

BULLETIN

BOSTON, Sept. 10.—An unidentified man was killed, a woman was shot and severely wounded, and a police officer was beaten by a mob and taken to a hospital in a serious condition in rioting in the vicinity of Scolly Square tonight.

BOSTON, Sept. 10.—Boston was under military rule tonight. After 24 hours of lawlessness, a sense of security was afforded an outraged public by the appearance of 5,000 soldiers under orders to restore order and protect life and property at any cost.

A troop of state guard cavalry dashing at full speed in company front with drawn sabres, cleared Scollay and Adams squares tonight of thousands who had jammed those places since early today. Both squares had been the scenes of intermittent rioting and when the cavalry approached a group of loyal police officers were maintaining a semblance of order with great difficulty. Gangs of gamblers who have infested Avery street between Washington and Tremont since last night were driven out at the point of the bayonet by guardsmen tonight.

There were fifteen dice games in progress with about 2,000 participants and spectators when the troops arrived.

Fifty three members of the Metropolitan police force who have been on emergency duty and who were ordered to patrol Scollay Square tonight refused and were suspended. They went to headquarters of the policemen's union and took out applications for membership.

It was noon today when Mayor Peters assumed control of what was left of the police department and called upon the commander of the tenth regiment of the state guard to assist him in preserving order. He also asked Governor Coolidge for additional troops. The governor immediately called out the fourth brigade, comprising men from cities and towns in the Metropolitan district and this evening he ordered out the fourteenth infantry from the Cape and the twentieth infantry from western Massachusetts. Boston also furnished a motor transport corps, a troop of cavalry and an ambulance company.

This force was believed sufficient to cope with the situation.

The threat that sympathetic strikes might be declared by the city firemen, street car men, telephone operators, electrical workers and other organized bodies with the American Federation of Labor was not lightly regarded.

Accordingly Governor Coolidge sent word to the mayor tonight that he stood ready to supplement the state guard by an appeal to the president for regulars. The not technically under martial law the city was in complete control of state troops under the direction of the mayor. A wave of public indignation against the city and state officials followed the excesses of last night. From the governor's office came an implied rebuke in the statement that he governor had been ready for two days to meet a request for assistance from the mayor. Mayor Peters in a statement accused the governor of trying to place upon him the responsibility that rested with Police Commissioner Curtis, an appointee of the governor.

Thruout last night the city was virtually at the mercy of mobs. Superintendent of Police Crowley estimated damage done at $300,000.

In some instances trucks were backed up to stores whose windows had been smashed and loaded with loot. Numberless persons were robbed.

Abandon City to Criminal

Last night the city was virtually abandoned to the hoodlums and criminal. For some reason not publicly explained the volunteer force which it had been expected would go on duty when the police quit was not called out until his morning.

The banks and large mercantile institutions were protected by their own guards but the small retailer was at the mercy of mobs which included in their number all elements from the purely mischevious to the down right crrminal. Store windows to the number estimated at 300 were smashed in and goods by the armful carried away. Police Superintendent Crowley placed the damage done during the night at $300,000.

WILSON VISITS NORTH DAKOTA ON WAY TO COAST

President Speaks at Bismark and Mandan During Day

ON BOARD PRESIDENT WILSON'S SPECIAL TRAIN, Sept. 10. —To a crowd which surrounded his private car today at Mandan, N. D., President Wilson declared a week of travel in the heart of the country had convinced him that the nation stands together for an international guarantee of peace.

"I am glad to get out to see the real folks," he said, "to feel the touch of their hands and know as I have come to know how the nation stands together in the common purpose to complete what the boys did who carried their guns with them over the sea.

"We may think that they finished that job but they will tell you they did not, that unless we see to it that peace is made secure they will have the job to do over again and we in the meantime will rest under an apprehension that we may have to sacrifice the flower of our youth again.

"The whole country has made up its mind that that shall not happen; and presently, after a reasonable time is allowed for unnecessary debate we will get out of this period of doubt and unite the whole force and influence of the United States to steady the world in the lines of peace."

The only set speech during the day was at Bismarck, during a two hour noon day stop. The presidential special picked up a second engine today as it began to climb into the Rockies on one of the longest continuous pulls of its ten thousand mile journey. The next scheduled stop was as Billings, Mont., where the president will speak tomorrow morning.

Tomorrow night he will address a meeting at Helena, Mont.

It was decided today that the presidential special would not run into Couer d'Alene, Idaho, where the president speaks Friday, but would stop at Rathdrum, Idaho, from which point the presidential party will motor four miles to the Couer d'Alene auditorium. Plans also were completed for the review of the Pacific fleet at Seattle, Saturday.

Arriving early in the afternoon the president will go aboard the historic battleship Oregon at 3 o'clock. The Oregon then will proceed up Puget Sound and take station for the ceremony.

At Bismarck today, Mr. Wilson spoke in the city auditorium, the smallest hall in which he has appeared during his trip. It holds about 1500 and was filled. So solicitious were the local officials to guard against overcrowding and confusion that once the president was inside they locked the doors and refused to open them for any purpose whatever. As a result the chief of police of Bismarck, Edmund W. Startling, the assistant chief of the secret service with the president's party and the chairman of the local committee on arrangements were among those absent from the meeting.

The committee secretary taking station at the stage door, treated impartially all requests that the door be opener but finally the police chief and Startling broke into the hall thru a cellar window. Another result was that no newspaper dispatches were released from the building until Mr. Wilson had completed his address.

A crowd and band met the train at Dickinson and there were again insistent calls for Mrs. Wilson.

"Mrs. Wilson is more bashful than I am," the president replied, "however, I'll try."

Mrs. Wilson appeared and one man called out to the president: "Mr. Wilson, let me shake hands with Mrs. Wilson; my hair is more gray than yours."

Mrs. Wilson smiling, leaned over the rail and shook hands.

UNABLE TO SHARE GLORY

Pershing's War Horse Will Be in Quarantine Five Months.

Washington, Sept. 10.—"Kidson," General Pershing's sorrel war horse will be unable to share the glory of victory in America with his famous commander as he did in the European capitals. An iron clad quarantine rule of the department of agriculture is the cause.

While his master is being idolized by a grateful people in the principal cities of the nation, Kidson will be forced for five months to play the ignoble role of "patient" in the quarantine quarters at Newport News, where veterinarians will watch to determine if he has a "catching disease."

ISSUES STATEMENT

New York, Sept. 10.—Before leaving for Baltimore Cardinal Mercier, who is visiting America, issued the following statement:

"The American army won the war. General Pershing is a great leader. To him our respect. To him our universal gratitude.

(Signed)

"Cardinal Mercier,
"Archbishop of Malines."

REPUBLICAN SENATORS BEGIN WESTERN TOUR IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Crowds tonight in vain besieged the Auditorium theater where Republican senators began their western speaking tour in answer to President Wilson's demands for unconditional acceptance or total rejection of the peace treaty and league of nations covenant. Before 8 o'clock the theater was filled and thousands of persons were left in the streets.

The streets were so dense with persons that police reserves were called out. The block along one side of the theater building had been roped off but the throngs broke down the barrier and overflowed in Michigan boulevard and Wabash avenues on either side of the block closed to traffic.

The thousands within and without had come to hear Senators Borah of Idaho and Johnson of California, and Medill McCormick of Illinois, the latter presiding at the meeting, expound their views of the peace treaty and league covenant and reply to President Wilson's utterances on his swing around the country.

The crowd outside was led into repeated cheering by a man who shouted that Senator Johnson would be the next president. The cheering, however, seemed about equally vigorous at mention of Senators Borah and McCormick.

While the throngs stormed about the various entrances after the doors had been closed a parade was led by a soldier in uniform blowing a bugle along Michigan boulevard. Several hundred persons were in line with banners bearing such inscriptions as:

"Welcome to the men who are bringing our boys back from Siberia," and "We want our boys back from Siberia."

Addresses Overflow Meeting.

Senator Johnson, after speaking in the theater, went to Grant park where he addressed an overflow meeting of several thousand persons.

Senator Johnson said in part:

The opening sentence of the president at Columus struck with you as with me a responsive and sympathetic chord. 'I have for a long time chafed at the confinement of Washington,' he said and as we contemplate the extraordinary rigors of a White House existence the silent suffering there for the long period of a month and a half as we visualize his inability to communicate to thecountry the thoughts of which he says his heart was so full, as we view the enforced restraint during this awful month which made it impossible for him to come from the nations' capital to report to his fellow citizens, we welcome enthusiastically his present trip, and breathe a sigh of relief that the 'confinement' in Washington is temporarily at an end.

"You doubtless have read his various addresses, what he terms his 'report to his fellow countrymen concerning those affairs of the world which now need to be settled.' You have searched, doubtless, for that report and you may have discovered that his report apparently has degenerated into rather intemperate and harch criticism and irritable and some times abusive characterizations.

"I am hoping that the salubrious climate and the balmy breezes of the Pacific may soothe his perturbed spirit and assuage his anguished soul.

"The crisis in the affairs of the republic is so grave that while we would not yield expression to the hot indigation we feel, and while we would accord to all our opponents the full measure of good faith which they deny us, yet we would speak plainly and without ambiguous phrases or mystical or veiled allusions, point the nation's peril.

"The inexorable facts make the issue with Mr. Wilson. When he says that the league of nations is the only conceivable arrangement which will prevent our sending our men abroad again very soon, the present conditions answer and confound him. As he uttered his words, 7,000 American sons were being ordered by the Paris conference to embark from this country to Silesia to patrol their coal mines. American boys were upon the Rhine, condemned to remain there for fifteen years by virtue of his actoin. American youths were being slain in Siberia in a war not declared by the American people, but directed in secrecy at Paris by what now constitutes the leageu of nations. The instrument for which he pleads, unless vitally amended, ties us until 1951 in the internal affairs of Germany and in all European controversies. If its terms be carried out as written, it means American boys for thirty years, and perhaps longer, will be policing and fighting in foreign lands. The inexorable facts make the issue.

"The president in violation of his word and of the will of the American people is seeking to impose his arbitrary will on the nation. He is asking us to hand American destiny over to the secret councils of Europe. It is the sworn duty of the senators of this nation to uphold the constitution to keep America American."

Senator Borah.

"No two men who wrote that treaty can agree now as to what it means," said Senator Borah, amid laughter.

"We in the senate want to construe that treaty, if that is possible.

"The president says that the treaty assures peace. Well in 1916 he said we must elect him for he would keep us out of war. A few months later we were in the war. I don't believe much in prophets.

"Do any of you want to go into a league that you can't get out of?"

All over the hall there were cries of "No, No."

"I there an American who wants a foreign nation to say when and where the Monroe Doctrine shall apply?" went on the speaker, and there were cries of "No."

When he spoke of the power in the hands of the president, there were cries of "take it away from him!" Catcalls, booes and cheers.

In his introductory remarks Senator McCormick said:

"We are here tonight under circumstances which are demanding attention all over the United States. The president has negotiated a treaty in defiance of his own expressed opinion. In defiance of the established practice under the constitution and despite the express will of the majority of the American people expressed at the polls.

"Improperly as some of us are told there has been interwoven in the treaty a covenant which in our judgment guarantees that the United States must take part in the warh that the treaty promises. He has not adduced an argument in support of his position. He has sought to explain away honest doubts which fill the breasts of millions of his countrymen. He has imouted to others motives which he himself would never acknowledge as his own. By abuse and attempted coercion he has sought to intimidate senators, to drive them from their judgment in order that obedient to his will they might depart from the obligations and the oath which they took on assuming the office of senators of the United States.

"The testing time has come. We are to learn if senators by coercion and intimidation may be driven from the performance of their sworn duty. Thank God there were men who dared speak their minds, who dared voice the words of the silent millions who were unable to speak."

Charges That Small Number Of Men Control

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10. — Findings of the federal trade commission in its investigation of the meat packing industry "were directed and controlled, not only in the investigation itself, but in the recommendations of the commission," for regulation as embodied in the Kenyon and Kendrick bills, Dr. J. M. Wilson, president of the Wyoming Wool Growers Association charged in a statement filed today with the senate agriculture committee. The controlling influence the statement added, was exercised "by a small number of men," in the American National Livestock association.

"I have been a member of the executive committee of the association for several years and did not approve this plan," Dr. Wilson said, "and I think the facts are now due congress, the public and particularly the great mass of producers who are not in sympathy with this movement.

"I am not indulging in accusation or mere assertion. The record reads that the federal trade commission did have 'the assistance and advice of our market committee and its attorney, Mr.

Amended Hun Peace Treaty Given To Senate

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The German peace treaty with amendments and its league of nations covenant with reservations was reported to the senate today by the foreign relations committee. Immediately after it was presented by Chairman Lodge two months to the day from the time the president had laid it before the senate, Senator Hitchcock, ranking Democratic member of the committee announced that the minority report urging ratification without amendment or reservations would be filed tomorrow. The fight over ratification will begin Monday, Chairman Lodge announcing that the treaty would be taken up then and kept continuously before the senate.

First will come the effort to amend the treaty and then the fight for reservations. Leaders of the administration forces continued to predict today that the treaty with the league covenant would be ratified in its original form.

Republican leaders declared that if put to a vote now the league would be rejected by the

STEEL UNION'S UNANIMOUS FOR STRIKE SEPT. 22

Twenty Four International Unions Issue Statement

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Regardless of the request of President Wilson that they take no action pending the coming industrial conference, Representatives of organized workers in the steel industry today called a strike, effective September 22, to compel recognition of their unions and of the principle of collective bargaining by the United States Steel corporation. The executive council of the 24 unions represented among the workers made known their decision in an announcement issued after they had telegraphed the president for a "more definite statement," as to possibilities of arranging a conference with steel corporation officials and after the president had replied asking that they withhold action until after the industrial conference.

Union officials tonight refused to speculate regarding the extent of the strike, tho a declaration attributed to Judge Gary of the steel corporation that the steel workers were not more than ten per cent organized was ridiculed as erroneous. The steel corporation was said to employ about 262,000 persons and the entire industry nearly 400,000. In some places, it was said, the men are 95 per cent organized and in virtually all mills organizers are active.

This campaign of organization union officials said has been opposed vigorously by the mill owners. Claims were made that at least 100,000 men in the Pittsburgh district, 100,000 in the Chicago district and 50,000 in scattered areas, employed by "Independents" as well as by the steel corporation, had been brought into the union and would answer the call by dropping their tools. In addition, union officials said, the strike would have its effect on other industries.

In announcing the action the executive council of the union declared that President Wilson's efforts to obtain a conference between the steel corporation and the union had been unavailing. Meanwhile it was said, "the most un-American outrages and unlawful tactics were employed to destroy our union."

The statement issued by the union heads said:

"The twenty four international unions in the steel industry and affiliated with the American Federation of Labor having exhausted every honorable and possible means of securing a conference with the United States Steel corporation for the purpose of discussing the intolerable and brutal conditions under which the men are compelled to work and having failed in these efforts have decided by unanimous vote to cease work Monday, September 22.

"The representatives of these international unions for the past four months tried eevry conceivable means to secure a conference with Judge Gary (representing the United States steel corporation. A personal letter from President Gompers to Judge Gary was ignored. Later on a committee waited on Judge Gary in New York and were refused an audience. Subsequently they were advised thru a letter signed by Judge Gary that he would not deal with Union labor representatives which is an absolute denial to his employes of the right of collective bargaining.

"The executive council of the American Federation of Labor brought the situation to the attention of President Wilson for the purpose of securing his cooperation in arranging a conference. Up until the present time the committee has not been advised that the efforts of the president have been any more successful than the efforts of President Gompers and the committee representing the employes.

"While we were engaged in these efforts, the most un-American outrages and unlawful tactics were employed to destroy our unions. In western Pennsylvania we were denied the rights of free speech and free assembly. Owners of meeting places were prevented from permitting our gatherings in their halls. Mass and street

HOT WEATHER AND THE SCHOOLS

These are not days for the children in the public schools and incidentally for their teachers. Weather records show that it is not at all unusual for a part of September to be hotter than the preceding month, especially if July weather has been hot. At any rate, it usually takes a week or ten days for the school machinery to get to running smoothly and while the hot weather brings some discomfort, it will probably not mean any real loss to pupils or teachers, even tho the weather is uncomfortable.

THE ABUSED RETAILER

In these days when there is so much discussion of living costs and profiteering there is a disposition to shift the responsibility from one class of business men to another, with the result that the retailer usually comes in for a large percentage of the blame.

There are without doubt individual instances where the retailer takes much more of profit than that to which he is justly entitled.

There are retailers who profiteer thru dishonest methods, but generally speaking, the retailer—that is from a Jacksonville standpoint—is not a man who is making more than a decent return on his investment and as payment for the labor performed and the risk involved in his business.

This is particularly true of those things that are rated as necessaries. Look over the list of merchants and business men in Jacksonville dealing in the necessities of life, and how many of them give the appearance of having taken in a greater percent of profit than their business justifies? The fact is many a retailer in Jacksonville is having difficulty to keep business "going as usual" these days and his prosperity by comparison with the amount of money involved in his transactions is not as great as in the period before the war.

THE NEED FOR LEADERSHIP

"You can't make a man do anything these days," was the sentence used by a Jacksonville citizen yesterday in referring to some comparatively trivial matter. However, it was a great truth and characteristic of the times. People generally do not like to be forced to any given line of action, but nowadays it is more than ever true, possibly as a result of the war period, but more likely the result of industrial conditions that have developed in the last year or two with the very active demand for workers.

The situation has been such that no man need to look far for a job and so there has come about a greater industrial independence than used to obtain. This feeling is reflected in many ways and it is truer now than ever before that you can't make a man do anything.

The greatest meaning of this phrase is to emphasize the need for strong, sincere leadership. Possibly there are few people who need to be "made" to do this or that, but certainly there are a great many of them who need to be led wisely.

A LOSS TO LABOR

The death of John Mitchell, former president of the American Federation of Labor, is a real loss to the country. Mr. Mitchell who was a comparatively young man, had been identified with labor problems and organizations for a long period of years. Thru his connection with organized labor and because he was such a thoro student of economic problems, he was a man who acquired wide influence. He never used his power for personal aggrandizement and was a sincere friend of labor. He was not an extremist and the temperate way in which he handled labor and economic problems made for his influence and success. As indicated, his death is a loss to the country.

THINGS THAT CAN BE DONE

The local Chamber of Commerce along with business men's organizations everywhere, receives a great many letters from firms seeking location for the establishment of factories or other business enterprises. Some of these proposals are bona fide but a great many of them upon investigation prove to be an effort on the part of a number actively identified with them to get "easy money."

It has been a popular thing for a number of years for small manufacturers in larger cities to endeavor to remove to smaller towns on the plea that labor troubles are minimized there, but the main purpose is to secure the possible bonus money or contributing capital in the way of sites or building.

The city was fortunate in securing the coming of the Eli Bridge Co. plant and there is a possibility that in coming months other enterprises of a similar stability may be secured, but generally speaking, the business men of Jacksonville must recognize the fact that this city is not destined to be a great industrial center. While this city has its own individual advantages, it cannot compete with some others in the facilities to be offered to large manufacturing plants.

The fact is that the main dependence of Jacksonville is the country surroundings, and local prosperity is based largely on agriculture and its associated interests. So one of the business opportunities open to the business men of Jacksonville is to do those things that are for the interest of farmers and the farming communities. Anything that can be done to promote agriculture and to make farming of a general or intensive kind more profitable will eventually reflect its benefit in Jacksonville.

Then anything that can be done to improve the roadways or to make the city more accessible from the country precincts is a worth while work. The development of automobile traffic in these recent years has enlarged the trade area of every city and there are a great many "small things"—that is, by way of comparison with factory propositions—which local business men can do to make their city more attractive and more accessible. The danger in every city of this size is that business men in their zeal to bring in new industries which will provide employment and so mean a distribution of money in wages, overlook some of the smaller things that they could readily do and which would certainly have beneficial results in a financial way, just as surely, if not quite as directly, as the establishment of a factory or other industrial enterprise.

Rippling Rhyms
By Walt Mason

ROCKS AHEAD

The country's going to the deuce, and anarchy is breaking loose. Whichever way we chance to turn we find new ills, and threats to burn, and if you throw a brick, by heck, you hit a crisis in the neck. We hear such bunk, and busheis more, each morning in the soft drinks store, where all the graybeards congregate to mourn the sinking ship of state. Cheer up! We heard the same old gag before this country had a flag; we heard it, or our fathers did, ere Bill Tell shot as Gessler's lid. They used to hear the same old dope when Caesar was the Roman's hope. And Noah heard it when he sailed, that time the drouth predictions failed. "Our garden's going to the dogs," cried Adam, when he chased the hogs, which had destroyed with tooth and tush, the rhubarb and the currant bush. Our distant prehistoric sires who had no chairs or comfy fires, but had to roost around in trees, were guilty of the same old wheeze. There always will be rocks ahead, and goblins dire and bogies dread, but our old ship of state will glide to safety on the further side. So let's forget our doubts and fears, and order four denatured beers.

OLD JACKSONVILLE
SOME CHANGES
By Ensley Moore
(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

It may be very "bad use" to say it, or improper, but "Things ain't as they used to was"

There are many illustrations of this, since 1818, when the Kelloggs came to what was Madison county and was to be Morgan in 1823, or since the flower bedecked prairie was broken by stakes in 1825, showing the narrow boundaries from the Centenary church to Scott block, and from Andrews' lumber yard to Dr. Wakeley's, north and south, of what was to be "The Athens of the West."

Game.

There was among many other things one great benefaction conferred by Providence upon the early settlers, in the abundant wild game to be secured almost without effort. The bears, foxes, raccoons—simplified to "coons"—deer, wild turkeys, rabbits, squirrels, prairie chickens, various birds—including wild pigeons; and wolves and panthers to enliven matters. Some of this game could only be eaten, others furnished clothes and bedding There were also aviating armies of wild ducks and geese, with their leaders vieing with the wild pigeon in almost darkening the sun.

In the year 1838 the wild pigeons are told of as having cleaned up five acres of corn in five hours, for a settler in Pike county. Prairie chickens, crows, quails and other high flyers used also to interest the farmer.

Pigeons used to camp in the woods and break down the limbs of trees by their weight. Men used to go to the places where they roosted, and club them down illimitably as to number. And these birds used to come to the same places annually. The pigeons, geese, ducks, quails and prairie chickens were quite thick even down to the days after the Civil War. As a matter of fact there were flying or running "varmints" of almost every kind except elephants, hippopotami, lions &c, but buffaloes caved over "the savannahs" of the west "before the white man began cutting down the trees or breaking the alluvial soil. Fish filled our rivers, of fine flesh and taste; some of them up to porpoises and sharks, almost, in size. The writer saw a "buffalo," from the Illinois, which weighed 125 pounds.

Methods of Heating.

From the time when the settler rubbed sticks together to get a fire, or shot their flintlock weapons into punky wood, to the days when women cooked in the fire places of cabins, or in kettles hung on sticks in the open, or when the first "two step" stoves appeared for cooking or the "ten-plate" stoves for heating, from all this down to electric flashlights and heating apparatus is some change, yet there are people still living who must have seen all these changes.

The Mails.

Any one of "mature" age—pretty well matured—can remember when the mails only came once or twice or three times a week, even to good sized towns. And the length of time it took to carry letters from one place to another was a caution.

Mails were carried in canoes or boats, on foot, on horse back, in wagons and hacks or stages, on steamboats, and finally the "choo-choo cars" hustled them along. Singularly enough, the early and most inefficient system, or lack of system, in carrying the mail made the cost of a letter highest. At first a letter could be sent without prepayment of postage—and some of the recipients might not have change enough to pay for the letters when they did come. That was before the days of stamps, and twenty-five cents used to be a common charge for a letter. The letter, itself, had no envelope, and it was a matter fo science, so to speak, to know how properly to fold a letter, and to seal it with sealing wax or wafers.

Postoffices, even in sizeable towns, used to be in stores, and the service was exasperating in its inefficiency and carelessness, to say nothing of the impudence of the postmaster or his indifferent clerks.

The latter day fine development of the postal service did not become a fact or accommodation till largely since the Civil War, and the expansion of the railway systems of this and other countries.

People of today give little thought to modern improvements—taking most things for granted—as if conveniences had always been at hand, and speed a matter of "cranking up."

But those who can remember back fifty, sixty or seventy years see what a wonderful era we have been living in, and yet "the half has not been told" of the changes in these comparatively few years.

KILLED HIS POULTRY

Yesterday afternoon some boys from the city were driving toward town a few miles of Chapin when they ran into flock of tame ducks killing a number outright and injuring some others. The fowls belonged to G. H. Coulson and he took his car and gave chase, overtaking the boys before they reached town. They wouldn't give their names; said the car belonged to their father and if they must they would pay the damages. Mr. Coulson feels the killing of the ducks was wholly uncalled for as he says the boys drove recklessly and made no effort to avoid the birds. He has the number of the car and will see what he can do in the matter.

EXPENSIVE LEMONADE

If you want a glass of lemonade served with lots of style be sure you have a good sized bill in your pocket when in a large city. A well known business man of Jacksonville took four friends to a swell hotel at which he was staying and entered the cafe or restaurant, ordered five lemonades tendering a $5 bill, and the waiter returned him 35 cents. Thinking that rather steep for five drinks he asked for the bill and it stated that there was a charge for service, table room and various matters and finally war tax and the bill was $4.65 without a waiter's tip.

The next time that gentleman takes friends in for a lemonade to that hotel he will be likely to go somewhere else.

Why?

Its Best To Buy Good Fabrics

—Because of high labor costs.

—You readily will realize that it costs in labor just as much to make a suit or overcoat out of poor fabric as it does from the better grades.

—In these days of high labor costs it is almost criminal to have cheap material worked up.

—It is well known that the cheaper fabrics will not stand up — will not wear, nor look well while wearing, no matter how thoroughly tailored.

—First quality woolens always stand up; always reflect the labor and time necessary to build good garments; look infinitely better, and wear longer—Hence —More than ever now is it true economy to see that only genuine high grade woolens are used for your fall suit and overcoat.

Doctor Issues Warning and Tells How to Stop Tobacco Habit

New York: Dr. Connor, formerly of Johns Hopkins Hospital says: I am often asked if I know anything to stop the tobacco habit and I always recommend Nicotol, which I have prescribed with great success. Nicotol contains no habit-formnig drugs, is absolutely harmless and produces astonishing results in a very short time. The use of tobacco saps the vitality, vim, vigor and ambition of the slave who is enthralled by its seductive effects. It undermines the health and leaves the victim an easy prey to general debility, throat and lung troubles, nervousness, insomnia, heart trouble, kidney trouble, headache, tongue and lip cancer and even blindness. Physicians the world over often trace the start of the above diseases and many others to nicotine poisoning.

If you want to free yourself from tobacco go to any drug store and ask for Nicotol tablets. Take one tablet after each meal and in a short time you will have no desire for tobacco—the craving will have left you. With the nicotine poisoning out of your system your general health will quickly improve.

Note — When asked about Nicotol tablets, one of our leading druggists said: "It is truly a wonderful remedy for the tobacco habit; away ahead of anything we have ever sold before. We are authorized by the manufacturers to refund the money to every dissatisfied customer, and we would not permit the use of our name unless the remedy possessed unusual merit." Nicotol tablets are sold in this city under an iron-clad money-back guarantee by all up-to-date druggists, including Armstrong's Drug Stores. — Adv.

PERSHING HEADS FAMOUS "FIRST" DOWN 5TH AVE.

from southern New York, Connecticut, New Jersey, Delaware, and eastern Pennsylvania, whose 2,700 sons or kinsmen were in the first division, were on hand to do them honor along with the men from other sections of the country. Many of these fighters, members of the 18th infantry, wore the French fourragere, the red and green cord signifying that the Croix de Guerre with palm had been twice conferred for conspicuous gallantry in action. The fourragere was bestowed upon the 18th by Brigadier General Bracquet of the French army, while officers and men were lined up on the decks of the transport Mobile just before it sailed from Brest.

Had Entire Equipment.

An epitome of America's fighting machine in Europe, the first division presented what military men say was the first parade of its kind in the country's history. That is, not only were the doughboys equipped with rifles, bayonets, packs, helmets, canteens, belts and ammunition, but every piece of the division's artillery was in line, as well as the ammunition trains, the rolling kitchens and other paraphernalia of a modern fighting unit.

Even the horses and mules, many of which had served thruout the war, were decorated with service stripes and all of the First's insignia, just as it was marked in France, was shown. The division's flags all bore the Croix de Guerre with which it was honored by the French nation, the 28th infantry having two of those emblems to its credit.

Machine guns of various types and sizes, tanks and mortars, grenade throwing devices were parts of the parade exhibits and were viewed with proud wonderment by thec rowds. Then there were the anti-aircraft guns whose muzzles often pointed skyward as if to bring down hostile flyers.

Among the fighters who won distinction for gallantry and were promoted on the field and who figured in the parade was Lieutenant Colonel Clarence Heubner of the 28th who was a regular army sergeant when the war started. He was wounded at Soissons and left the hospital to reenter the battle. Another was Supply Sergeant Powell of Company M, also of the 28th, who despite his noncombatant duties, frequently volunteered and in one engagement gained his objective after every enlisted man and ranking officer in his detachment had been wounded or killed.

After them came the Eighteenth, the Twenty-sixth and the Twenty-eighth, their colors twined with the fourragere of France.

The First artillery brigade, a banner announced, was composed of men from 45 states and Hawaii.

The Sixth field artillery hauled the 75 millimeter gun which fired the first American shot at the Germans on October 23, 1917.

An impressive moment of the parade was when the soldiers reached the Altar of Liberty where drums were muffled, colors "dipped" and officers saluted in memory of the nation's dead.

At the Altar and Victory Arch were British, Italian, Australian and Canadian soldiers in uniform who stood at attention as the parade passed. One of the heroes in the long line was Captain Tom Gibson, of Chicago, winner of double citations for heroism at Soissons and St. Mihiel, who altho severely wounded, refused to leave the field when in command of a machine gun company and stayed with his men until their objective had been attained.

STEEL UNIONS ARE UNANIMOUS FOR STRIKE SEPTEMBER 22

meetings were broken up with the pretext that we did not have permits for the same in spite of the fact that it was impossible to secure such permits from the steel mill town officials, who are owned body and soul by the steel interests. Our organizers have been jailed and fined for attempting to speak to our members. Our meetings have been picketed by hundreds of gunmen, thugs and company officials, in an effort to browbeat and intimidate the workers from meeting together to discuss their grievances.

Thousands of our members have been discharged for no other reason than having become members of our union.

"All of this, with the cold blooded and brutal murder of seven of the organizers and members by steel mill guards and professional gunmen during the past few days have made it impossible to restrain the employes any longer. In view of the stubborn and uncompromising attitude of the steel trust officials there is no alternative left to the committee except to comply with the demands of the steel workers for release and to declare a strike to become effective Monday, Sept. 22."

Urges Postponement of Action

On Board President Wilson's Special Train, Sept. 10.—President Wilson, thru Secretary Tumulty, today telegraphed Samuel Gompers urging the steel men to postpone their threatened action until the forthcoming industrial conference in Washington.

Secretary Tumulty also sent a telegram to Louis Brownlow, president of the board of commissioners of the District of Columbia asking him to postpone action against Washington police who recently joined a union affiliated with the American Federation of Labor and who were ordered to give up their affiliation by today under pain of dismissal, until the conference.

The telegram to Mr. Gompers said:

"Hon. Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, Washington, D. C.:

"In view of the difficulty of arranging any present satisfactory mediation with regard to the steel situation the president desires to urge upon the steel men thru you the wisdom and desirability of postponing action of any kind until after the forthcoming industrial conference at Washington.

(signed) "J. P. Tumulty."

SEEK SELF GOVERNMENT

Washington, Sept. 10.—President Barcelo of the Porto Rican senate urged the house insular affairs committee that congress grant self-government in internal affairs to the island and that the federal farm loan and vocational education acts also be extended to it.

Galena, Ill., Sept. 10.—Frank X. Willy today was found guilty by a jury of the murder of Earl A. Fitch, a bank cashier, who was shot to death last July. The jury recommended life imprisonment.

FIFTY INDICTMENTS RETURNED AT QUINCY

Federal Grand Jury for Southern Illinois District Completes Work.

Quincy, Ill., Sept. 10.—Indictments totalling fifty were returned by the federal grand jury for the Southern Illinois district to Judge Louis FitzHenry of Bloomington, here today after being in session for nearly two weeks. Most of them are suppressed to await the arrest of the defendants.

In the list of offenses are included 21 violations of the laws governing the sale of retail liquors in "dry" territory, four or five for failure of liquor dealers to make inventory and returns and to pay floor taxes, ten for freight car robberies and various other charges. Thomas Corrigan and John Broderick of Springfield were indicted for passing altered second liberty loan registered gold bonds, which were identified by their serial number as having been stolen from the Nilwood National Bank. No charge was made against the men of stealing the bonds.

Sylvester Kibby, also of Springfield, was indicted for using corn, sugar, lemons and other fruits in the manufacture of whiskey in violation of the act of August 10, 1918, which prohibits the use of foodstuffs, cereals and fruits in the manufacture of distilled liquors.

Thomas "Pinkey" Bride of Bloomington is named as defendants in a true bill for using the mails to defraud. He is alleged to have represented to Miss Carrie Baton of Kentucky who was visiting Bloomington last July that he had found a valuable diomond ring that she had lost and induced her to send him a $5 reward by mail. She did not recover the ring.

Albert M. Hughes of Springfield is charged with impersonating a United States deputy marshal and Mike Pusich and Mike Spudich, Italians of Staunton, are charged with passing reserved bank notes of the United States.

No names of liquor dealers selling liquor in "dry" territory were given nor for other liquor violations. Government attorneys assert that some of them are against liquor dealers who are alleged to have attempted to defraud the government in consigning goods to fictitious names to escape the paying of floor tax.

WHEELER THANKS VOTERS FOR SUPPORT

I wish to express my appreciation for the splendid vote given me at the primary Wednesday. I endeavored to make a clean campaign in the primary and shall make an active canvass for the election. I hope that you will give me the same loyal support at the election that you did at the primary.

AMENDED HUN PEACE TREATY GIVEN SENATE

senate. Efforts to reach some agreement on reservations are being made.

The formal report of the majority was presented with very little formality. There was a larger attendance on the floor, however, than usual.

Senator Kenyon, Republican, Iowa, launched a bitter attack upon the league covenant and declared it never could be adopted as it now stands. The big crowd in the galleries broke forth into applause as the Iowa senator concluded. There were many references to the treaty in later debate and tomorrow Senator Harding of Ohio, a Republican member of the foreign relations committee will speak against ratification.

The majority report contained 45 amendments to the treaty and four reservations to the league covenant. Two of the amendments promise to be the subject of prolonged debate as they would award Shantung province to China and would provide that the United States have a vote in the league assembly equal to that of Great Britain. Some indications of the majority feeling was given today by Senator Kenyon who declared that had the league covenant not been interwoven with the treaty the Shantung and voting clauses would have been the only things standing in the way of speeding ratification. The other principal amendments reported would prohibit the United States from having representatives on reparations commissions. The other amendments deal with phraseology.

The chief fight is expected to be over the league reservations. They are:

The right of unconditional withdrawal of the United States from the league; refusal to assume foreign territorial guarantees or mandates without sanction of congress under article ten, exclusive action in domestic and political affairs and interpretation of the Monroe Doctrine solely by this country. The treaty will be discussed and disposed of in open session, Chairman Lodge announced today.

"In urging Democrats to come out of the valley of stubbornness" Lenator Kenyon declared there were votes enough in the senate to ratify treaty with substantial reservations.

"They are not here to ratify it without," he said. "The votes are here to defeat the whole treaty if substantial reservations are not adopted. Abuse and villification even from the highest sources of the land will not change the minds of men who have given long conscientious thought to this subject and believe ratification in the present form of the league is a betrayal of this country.

"In standing for reservations they are not standing against any plan to carry out the terms of the Paris conference, they are not contemptible quitters, nor are they mere time servers. They are trying to Americanize this league. They may reply to the president's Billings' speech in reference to the charge of contemptible quitters," that the most contemptible quitters in the history of the world were those who assembled with high ideals at the Paris conference and permitted Japan to take over Shantung in violation of some of the fourteen points and in violation of the doctrine of self-determination and in violation of God's eternal justice."

Scores President Wilson.

During a side debate on the league of nations today, Senator Norris, Republican of Nebraska, charged that President Wilson "spent money like a drunken sailor" in Europe in "cavorting around with the representatives of foreign monarchies."

Individual economy being an effective weapon against the high cost of living, Senator Norris declared the president might have led the way. In reply to a question as to what he would have done, Senator Norris replied:

"I would not have taken 1,500 people to advise me unless I expected to take their advice. I would not have had a ship go in advance of me to receive me when I arrived. I would not have taken the chefs and cooks from the Biltmore hotel."

CHARGES THAT SMALL NUMBER MEN CONTROL

W. L. Fisher, during the investigation' and this notwithstanding the fact that the producers were but one branch of the industry which was ordered investigated and were themselves not only escaping investigation but actively assisting to investigate another branch of the industry.

"Cooperation in the investigation would not suffice. They wanted constant working with the commission to as to 'secure such recommendations as will adequately protect our interests.'"

Dr. Wilson quoted from the proceedings of three conventions of the livestock association and said that considerable sums of money had been spent in propaganda to bring about such an investigation.

W. B. Colver, member of the trade commission, was quoted in the Wilson statement as telling the 1919 convention of the association that we "did as you told us to do."

Senator Harrison, Democrat, a member of the committee suggested that investigators should be employed to determine whether or not the consumer had been given the benefit of recently reduced meat prices noted in the wholesale and livestock markets.

Attorneys for Swift & Co., Wilson & Co., and Morris & Co. promised assistance to the committee if they would undertake such a proceeding and urged that it be extended to an audit of the accounts of the packers.

T. G. Park, a Tulsa, Okla., retail dealer, said that he was at a loss to know where this complaint about high prices came from, because people ought to know that what they are paying now for living will be cheap compared with what they'll pay in 60 or 90 days.

EARLY TRIAL EXPECTED

HIGHWAY ROBBERY CASE IS CONTINUED

Case Against Edward McCollister and Leonard Bento Charged with Highway Robbery Continued Until Sept. 20.—Hansel Fails to Appear.

Failure of Daniel Hansel, chief witness in the case of Edward McCollister and Leonard Bento charged with highway robbery to appear caused a continuance in Justice Dyer's court Wednesday.

The case was originally set for hearing in the court of Justice Opperman but a change of venue was taken to Justice Dyer. When the case was called Hansel failed to appear, tho Miss Louise Bottoms was present. The state asked for a continuance which was granted. The court set the time of the hearing for Saturday morning, September 20, at 9 o'clock.

No reason was assigned for the failure of Hansel to appear. The police made a search for him but he was not at the plant of Swift & Co., where he has been employed. There are a number of unfounded rumors as to the cause of his disappearance but the police have no definite evidence to support these rumors.

However, Justice Opperman at the time he set the hearing of McCollister and Benton served a subpoena on Hansel. This will rather place that gentleman in "dutch" as he will be liable for contempt of court if apprehended. It is understood that the authorities intend to make every effort to find Hansel and bring him back to appear oin the case.

COACH R. E. HARMON NOW AT SANTA CLARA

Well Known Local Coach Reached California September 3—Jack James, Sport Writer, Says He "Looks Good."

Coach R. E. Harmon, who left Jacksonville recently for California, where he will coach the football squad of Santa Clara university, arrived at his destination September 3.

The coach was late in getting away because of his farm work and he feared he would get marooned by the threatened railroad strike. However, he missed that and is now on the job.

Jack James, sport writer of the San Francisco Examiner, has the following to say of "Red" and we who have known him for many years, know that it is the truth and that he will look even better after the football season opens.

All things come unto him who waits, opined some philosophic bird once on a time.

Santa Clara university football folks have been repeating this comforting maixm to themselves over and anon during the last few weeks, but without deriving much comfort therefrom. For these said Santa Clara football folks had been waiting for a coach, and the said coach has been lost, missing unheard of or from, and otherwise unaccounted for.

But yesterday the much-desired coach blew in on the wings of the morning (a direct crib from the poets, that) and now the Missionites know peace and contentment once more.

This coaching gentleman is named Robert Emmett Harmon, the given names having been bestowed, so he says, in memory of an eminent French royalist.

He looks good, does this son of Erin, who is about to show the Missionites the difference between rugby and football as practiced on American soil. He has a clear blue eye and one of those square jaws and a good firm grip. He rather gives one the impression that what he says goes, which is a rather necessary quality in the makeup of a successful football coach.

Harmon has had success in his line, too. He comes from Denver university to Santa Clara with a splendid record, and it wouldn't be at all surprising if he made an equally good record with the Mission collegians. He looks like that sort.

What sort of material is to be found at Santa Clara is at present a mystery to the new coach. He paid his first visit to the campus yesterday afternoon, however, and before long he will be ready to settle down to work.

Matrimonial

Sayre-Robinson.

Roy Sayre of Lynnville and Miss Esther Robinson of this city were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa M. Robinson, 853 North Main street, at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening.

The ceremony was said by the Rev. G. T. Wetzel and was witnessed by about fifty relatives and friends. Following the vows the couple received congratulations and dainty refreshments were served.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Asa M. Robinson and was born and reared in this city and is a graduate of the high school. She is a member of Congregational church and a young woman whose charm of manner and many womanly graces have won for her a large circle of friends.

The groom was born in the vicinity of Lynnville and is a member of the Methodist church in that place. He is a farmer by occupation and commands the respect of all who know him.

The young couple expect to begin housekeeping at once on the old Jewsbury farm in the vicinity of Literberry.

Among the out of town guests present were Frank Unland and family, Miss Leta Schafer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berger and Garret Steinberg, all of Meredosia.

ADJUDGED INSANE.

In the county court yesterday Ella Fishel of Prentice neighborhood was adjudged insane and ordered committed to Jacksonville State hospital. The woman was brought to Jacksonville by Deputy Sheriff John Roach.

Mrs. William Buerke is again at her home, 423 West Walnut street, after spending three weeks at Passavant hospital.

AS CUSTOMS CHANGE.

From Washington Star.

"Any old-fashioned horse thieves around Crimson Gulch?" asked the visitor in quest of adventure.

"No," replied Cactus Joe. "The hoss thieves have all gone East an' took to stealin' motor cars, which is less risky and more remunerative."

FOR THE CAUSE OF FOREIGN MISSIONS

Hebron Society to Celebrate Fiftieth Anniversary of Inauguration of Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

In the year 1869 eight devoted ladies in Boston felt the call to do more for foreign missions and accordingly organized a Woman's Foreign Missionary society under great difficulties and at once went to work preparing for something substantial under the auspices of the Methodist church. The first work was to secure funds to send to India Miss Isabelle Thoburn, sister of the noted Methodist bishop of that name and Dr. Clara Swain to assist in the work there.

This is the fiftieth anniversary of that work and the effort is to do something grand for the cause.

A flourishing local society is connected with Hebron church with fifteen active and two honorary members. The officers are:

President—Mrs. R. W. Robinson.

Vice president—Mrs. G. T. Wetzel.

Treasurer—Mrs. Amos Swain.

Recording secretary — Miss Harriet M. L. Jmper.

Superintendent of mite boexs—Mrs. J. C. Swain.

There is also a Standard Bearers organization and Mrs. Robinson is the supervisor.

A feature of the work is preparing jubilee bells which are made of pasteboard, about six inches long, and selling them for a dollar each. The bells are in turn donated to the cause by the purchaser and sent to Boston to decorate the large church when jubilee services are to be held in October. Miss Hattie Jumper has sold 26 bells and 60 have been sent Miss Myra Beggs, at Ashland, district secretary, who acknowledged them in a congratulatory letter and who will forward them to Boston. The bells are covered with gold paper indicative of the 50th anniversary.

The one selling the most would be declared belle of the district and that honor in the shape of a large bell will probably come to it.

Special services are to be held next Sunday morning at Hebron and it is hoped that Salem, Shiloh, Eckman Chapel and Island Grove will be represented.

The summary of the work of the conference year just closing is very commendable. It is as follows:

|---|---|
| Membership dues | $17.00 |
| War orphans' gift | 100.00 |
| Thank offering | 30.00 |
| Jubilee bells | 60.00 |

| Special work | 26.55 |
| Christmas offering | 4.00 |
| Standard Bearers | 26.20 |

SIMPLE HOME REMEDY ADVISED FOR ROSE AND HAY FEVER

Anyone Can Make a Pint for Trifling Sum and Used in Time May Prevent Annual Attack.

"No matter how severe your yearly attack be,
No matter how distressing or humiliating—
Its intensity can be reduced to a harmless, mildness," says a Kentucky druggist who believes from what he has seen that this simple home made remedy is a most important discovery.

He has seen the most severe and apparently unconquerable cases reduced to what might be called a mild cold in twenty-four hours.

In many cases where the patient started treatment a week or ten days before the expected attack the unwelcome yearly visitor failed to appear with anything like its usual intensity.

People who want to try this new treatment can make a pint in a few minutes.

Pour one ounce of Mentholized Arcine into a pint bottle then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled. Gargle daily as directed and snuff or spray the nostrils twice daily.

That's all there is to the treatment which so many sufferers have found to be a true friend.

Mentholized Arcine in one ounce vials is dispensed by all the better pharmacies.

OBITUARY

John M. Trotter, a pioneer resident of Morgan county, passed from earth in Jacksonville Thursday afternoon. His health had been declining for the last three years.

Deceased was the son of David and Jane Alexander Trotter, and was born in Indiana, May 24th, 1830. His parents immigrated to Illinois, when he was about six months old, and settled near old Princeton, Morgan county, in which county his life has been spent; excepting the three years he lived in Cass county, and two years in California.

In 1865, he settled on the land, then a wilderness, which he cleared and developed into his late home near Sinclair. Aug. 23rd, 1861 he was united in marriage to Miss Lavina J. Mengel, in Jacksonville, Ill., who survives him, and has been a helpmeet thruout the years. To this union seven children were born: Milton E. Jacksonville, Ill.; Hattie J.; Mrs. Vinetta G. Basey, Waco, Texas; Mrs. Willametta G. Dyer, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; Fred C., Sinclair, Ill.; Mrs. Bessie M. Myers of Jackson, Tenn., and Sophia Edna. Two of the daughters, Hattie J. and Sophia Edna, died in childhood.

He also leaves fourteen grandchildren, four great grandchildren and a number of nephews and nieces, and other relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

At 16 years of age he professed religion and united with the church at Hebron. Presumably, at the last camp meeting held on the "old Robinson camping ground, or in the "old log church." Altho diffident in disposition, thruout his long residence in the community, he has been closely identified with its history, especially of Hebron church.

When the church (recently removed for the erection of the present structure) was built, he gave his time with his team and hauled most of the material used.

The lumber was purchased "in the rough" and of necessity was hand-dressed; Mr. Trotter did a large share of the "planing" of the lumber from which the seats and other interior finishings were made. He also hauled the material for the foundation of the first edifice erected in the town of neighbor, a patriotic citizen, one Ashland, Cass county. A good ever ready to help in time of need, has gone from us.

A CLOSE CALL

Yesterday as Sylvester Arbuckle was hauling a boat from Nichols park to the city and when near the railroad track the street railway trolley line broke. The rear end struck the back end of his wagon and the front dropped in front of his horse. He quickly guided his horse into the ditch and escaped serious consequences. Had a live end struck him or his horse it would probably have been fatal.

The Lerner Waist Company, New York, has adopted a five-day plan. S. A. Lerner, announced that the plan had been under consideration for some time, but before finally deciding upon it the matter was put before the employes, who favored it unanimously. The working week will be from Monday to Friday inclusive, and the daily hours will be from 8:15 to 6, with an hour for lunch, between 11:45 and 12:45.

Despite many predictions of lessened production, officials of the company claim that the decrease in produdction thru the loss of four hours will not amount to such a figure as to make the plan prohibitive. All departments are to have the same hours. This is the first large firm in the garment industry that has adopted the five-day week plan.

Preparations are being made at Marianna, Ark., for the cutting of timber on extensive tracts of land owned by the Singer Sewing Machine Company. Present proposals involve only the gum stumpage on timber property near here. About 60,000,000 feet of the gum timber will be cut from the tract and the Singer management is understood to be negotiating for other similar land in this state. The ash oak and elm stumpage will not be cut until the gum has been cleared.

Reports from Germany to the Peace Conference say the Germans are said to be purchasing large quantities of wool in Spain and putting it into storage in an effort to improve the rate of exchange.

Common Stock of the William Wrigley, Jr., Company has made its first appearance on the Chicago Stock Exchange, with initial sales at 80, an advance of 20 points over the price at which 20,000 shares were sold by a local investment firm a few days ago. The par value is $25 a share.

Growing from an original investment of $5,000 in 1891, the company has supplied all its additional paid capital from earnings, with the exception of the recent sales of common stock. Its sales in 1919, up to August 1, totalled $16,000,000.

Apropos of the outcry British toy manufacturers are making over the expected coming of German toys, a large London retailer has called attention to some interesting facts.

First, he says, tin toys chiefly come from Bavaria, which is 600 miles from a seaport, that the metal required is nearly all imported from England and the freight charges on raw material and manufactured toys have greatly increased. Second, under the present rate of exchange the Germans must pay about ninety marks to get a British pound's worth of raw tin. Third, most of the plush used in German Teddy bears is purchased at Bradford. Fourth the mohair used in dolls is bought at Manchester and Bradford and, finally, celluloid toymakers formerly bought much sheet celluloid from British firms and many German makers of rubber toys got their raw rubber in the London market.

In indicating these points to retailers he says he has no fear of being locked up in the Tower for pro-Germanism, as they are of common knowledge in the trade.

LOWER HOG PRICES WEAKENS GRAIN

Chicago, Sept. 10.—Big setbacks in the price of hogs had a weakening effect today on the corn market. Rallies which took place failed to last. The close was heavy, 3-4 to 2c net lower with September $1.59 3-4 to $1.60 and December $1.28 to $1.28 1-4. Oats lost 3-4 to 1 1-8c. In provisions the outcome ranged from 22c decline to 35c advance. With thousands of hogs nsold at the stock yards here and with prices for the animals down to $14.00 a hundred weight, nearly $2 drop within a fortnight it was virtually inevitable that the corn market also should give way. Considerable purchasing of corn, however, developed on the ground that all bearish factors had been more than discounted.

Oats were governed by the action of corn.

Provisions reflected the weakness of hogs and grain but some upturns ensued as a result of better cash inquiry.

The Republicans of this county gave a vote of 749 for Logan Hay, 596 for C. L. Conkling and 591 for James H. Paddock of Springfield, candidates for delegate to the constitutional convention.

In Sangamon county however, Mr. Paddock and Mr. Conkling ran far ahead of Mr. Hay and become the nominees of the party.

There was no contest among Democratic nominees, A. D. Stevens and William H. Nelms, both of Springfield, being the candidates.

There was a comparative light vote case in Morgan county as is usually the case in an off year election. Mr. Wheeler had a majority of 356 over Mr. Magill and Mr. Sample's majority over Mr. McDonald was 165. Both candidates nominated for commissioner are successful farmers.

The detailed vote in the 31 precincts of Morgan county appears in the election table.

Fred Yorick of Greene county made a business triy to the city yesterday.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS CHICKEN FRY AT LITER

Ladies Aid of Literberry Baptist Church Give Annual Chicken Fry—Over Thousand People Attend.

Over one thousand people attended the annual chicken fry given by the Ladies Aid society of the Baptist church at Literberry Wednesday evening.

The crowd was estimated by old residents as the largest that had ever assembled in Literberry. The roads were in excellent condition and the weather ideal. Visitors were present from Roodhouse, Murrayville, Manchester, Woodson, Lynnville, Winchester, Chapin, Concord, Jacksonville, Virginia, Chandlerville, Petersburg, Ashland and White Hall.

There were many compliments on the dinner served by the ladies, one gentleman from Roodhouse saying that it was the finest he had ever eaten. The dinner was served in the basement of the church and arrangements had been made to seat one hundred people at one time. Plans were so perfect that there was no confusion in handling the crowd.

Seven hundred chickens had been prepared for the occasion and other eatables that go with them. The ladies sold out everything and will no doubt realize a goodly sum, tho last night they were unable to give any figures on the proceeds.

WILL GIVE SOCIAL

A lawn social will be given by the ladies of Second Christian church on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fountain, South Fayette street, this evening.

RETURNS TO EAST

Friends of Passavant Urged to Rally to its Support—Institution is Ward of Churches.

The campaign for Passavant hospital is progressing slowly. Some of the solicitors have been able to make fair reports but the pledges have not been as large as the campaign committee had hoped for. The hospital is the ward of the Protestant churches of Jacksonville and the members of the canvassing committee are therefore seeking to impress upon the churches the fact that they are legally and morally bound to give the institution their support. It has been suggested that if the hospital has not been managed in a way satisfactory to the churches that they have it in their power to correct any mistakes and that it is their duty to do so.

There have been a good many small subscriptions but thus far the committee has been unable to get satisfactory response from persons who are able to make large contributions. The hospital management has felt that some of these persons have really an obligation to the hospital which they can discharge only by the pledging of a generous subscription.

There can be no question but that the Protestant churches of Jacksonville are obligated in this matter and it is their duty to see that the hospital is efficiently and satisfactorily managed. The institution has a definite place in the community and the need for such an institution cannot be disputed.

MUCH TRAVEL.

Clarence Lukeman has returned from a busines trip to Chicago and says the hotels in the great city were crowded and trains are well loaded. He came by way of Springfield and the fast mail from that city had many passengers standing in the aisles and more boarded the train in Jacksonville than left it. He said a friend and wife recently went to Denver and had hard work to get any kind of a room. Cots were scattered all thru the halls and all available space was occupied and so it is everywhere.
